

AFRICAN JOURNAL OF THORACIC AND CRITICAL CARE MEDICINE

Notice to all pulmonologists and general physicians

The African Journal of Thoracic and Critical Care Medicine is now SA DoHET-accredited and indexed with NCBI databases including PubMed.

AJTCCM will consider submissions on basic science, translational, and clinical work in the broad fields of respiratory and critical care medicine, and including tuberculosis and sleep medicine. There is a mechanism for appropriate articles, including those about COVID-19, to undergo rapid publication and gain immediate visibility.

More information about the Journal can be found at: <http://www.ajtccm.org.za/index.php/SARJ>
